IN EAST ORLANDO!

“The arts are the best insurance policy a community can take on itself.”

As a non-profit community theater, we rely on the generous support and partnership of individuals, businesses and organizations to fulfill our mission of bringing the theater arts to audiences and participants of all ages. Your donation enables the production of shows, program scholarships for underserved students, replacement of sound and lighting equipment, live performances at community and charity events, show tickets for outreach to schools and special need groups and much more! We are also allocating funds toward ongoing improvement of our new theater space in East Orlando.
